SET BUDGET OF UPPER ADAMS SCHOOL SYSTEM

The Upper Adams joint school board whittled together an approximately $318,000 budget for the coming year at its meeting Monday evening at the Biglerville High School, and expressed the hope that it will still be able to keep the budget at about that level when it re-studies the budget next month for final approval.

The new budget will come within a few dollars of last year's budget, according to the figures compiled at Monday evening's session.

Much of the lengthy meeting was spent in receiving reports from the various committees, instruction, transportation, maintenance, etc., concerning the financial needs those committees anticipate for the coming year.

More Pay For Teachers
One factor caused much additional cutting of other figures, the approximately $10,000 more than will have to be paid the 52 teachers in the joint system this year under the mandatory increases in salaries set by law. Most of the teachers are eligible for the $200 per year increase.

The board did not release the figures on its new budget. Members said that additional checking must be made on requirements in connection with several cuts made by the board. They added that the tentative budget will be ready for public inspection in a few days, and they prefer to withhold details of the budget until those checks are made and the final figures are available for public presentation.

Last year the jointure had a budget of $318,000, of which $4,678 was for general control; $198,930 for instructional service; $40,175 for auxiliary agencies; $25,000 for operation of plant; $6,700 for (Please Turn to Page 2)

SAYS ENGLISH KNOW EMPIRE IS PAST PEAK

Englishmen are beginning to realize that the greatest days of the British empire are over, Dr. Basil Crapster, of the Gettysburg College faculty, told the members of the local Rotary Club at their meeting Monday evening in the YWCA.

Speaking of his visit to England last summer, Dr. Crapster told the group that "there is a great fund of good will for America among the people of England." Everywhere he went in Britain, he found a friendliness toward America and Americans among the people with whom he spoke, he said.

The recognition that England has gone "downhill" from its days of greatness was expressed by many of the "little" people of England whom he met, the college professor said.

Has Many Problems
He spoke of England's many problems, its need for modernization of its industry, its need to import food and raw materials and export finished product if it is to survive. The tremendous improvising effort of two wars, and of the attempts of the country to meet its problems both under the Labor government and the present Conservative government.

Nationalization of nation-wide industries under the Labor government is being followed by de-nationalization of some of those industries during the Conservative government.

But because of the problems of the nation, denationalization cannot proceed at too fast a pace, Crapster said. He described Churchill as being more interested in foreign affairs than in the domestic problems of the nation. Strides are being made in some industries to bring them up to date in production methods and given time England will probably be able to pull itself out of its economic difficulties, he added.

Plus For New Members
Edmund W. Thomas presented pins and Rotary books to four new members: Rev. Victor Meredith, Dr. Earl Bowen, Murray Goldsborough and Attorney John MacPhail.

Approximately 30 members reported they and their wives intend to attend the 25th anniversary dinner meeting to be held by the Littleton Rotary club Tuesday evening, March 10, at Basehore's restaurant in Littleton.

President Richard Drees presided with 55 present. He announced that Dr. Albert Bachman will speak next Monday evening on his tour of Europe last summer.

AT PENN STATE CONFAB
County Superintendent of Schools J. Floyd Slaybaugh is attending a state-wide superintendents' conference being held at State College Monday, today and Wednesday.

She was stationed at the March Air Force Base in California before leaving for Japan three weeks ago.

LEGION WILL GIVE PRIZES TO COLLEGE ROTC

Three awards will be presented by the Albert J. Lentz post of the American Legion this spring to outstanding ROTC students at Gettysburg College.

The post, at its meeting Monday evening at its home on Baltimore St., authorized the commander, Attorney Donald M. Swope, and the Americanism Committee headed by Lawrence M. Sheads to contact officials of the ROTC and Air ROTC of Gettysburg College to determine when the awards can be given at some event during April or May.

Awards will be presented to the outstanding senior student in the Air ROTC, to the best drilled freshman in the Army ROTC and to the high individual scorer in competition on the rifle teams, whether air or army ROTC.

Prizes Not Decided
Sheads said the awards are being given to recognize proficiency in the duties of the soldier on the part of the ROTC students and to encourage interest in maintaining the highest standards of soldiering.

No decision was reached at the meeting on whether the awards will be given in the form of cash or cups or medals, with that decision turned over to the commander and Americanism committee.

SCHOOL DELAYS ARE DISCUSSED BY DIRECTORS

What delay in state approval of elementary school building plans here may be caused by an impending re-survey of Adams County school systems by the State Department of Public Instruction was a matter up for discussion at an uneventful 90-minute monthly meeting of the Gettysburg School Board Monday evening.

Dr. L. C. Keefeauver, Gettysburg superintendent of schools, said he had learned that a periodic re-survey of the entire county school situation is about to begin. The information to be gathered by the state would guide the department in setting up policies for the development of high and elementary school centers in the county.

The Gettysburg Joint School District has pending at Harrisburg plans for an addition to the high school building and preliminary plans for a grade school building at Colt Park. Discussion Monday evening raised the question of whether approval of building plans might be held up pending completion of the state survey.

One Building Or Two
Dr. Keefeauver told the board he had been assured at Harrisburg that the state survey is to be made first in counties where building operations are contemplated so that plans (Please Turn to Page 6)

Seminarian Gets Call To York Church

Theodore Schlack, who will be graduated in May from the Lutheran Seminary, has been called to serve as full-time assistant pastor at Christ Lutheran Church, York. He will assist the Rev. Dr. Gerald G. Neely, who has served the church for nearly 21 years.

The call was extended following a congregational vote at the morning worship Sunday. Present plans are for the seminarian to assume his duties around July 1. He will be ordained in May in Messiah Lutheran Church, Philadelphia, at the Central Pennsylvania Lutheran Synod meeting. According to tentative plans, installation rites will be held in the Christ Church after July 1.

ARTHUR J. ROTH TO EDIT SOCIAL, WELFARE BOOK

Arthur J. Roth, 200 W. Middle St., a staff member of the Adams County Board of Assistance, has been named editor of the Adams County Directory of Social and Welfare Services now in preparation. It was announced today by Mrs. Henry T. Bream, chairman of the County Service Committee, which launched the project several months ago.

Progress made to date on collecting and editing material that will make up the directory should permit its publication early this spring, Mrs. Bream said. The directory will be the first of its kind in Adams County and will be distributed to organizations and individuals who most often are asked by the public, as to how and where they can secure aid or assistance or other services within the county.

67 Groups Contacted
Letters of explanation and questionnaire type information forms were sent to 67 Adams County groups, agencies and organizations which the committee knows are rendering direct services to the people of the county asking them to complete the information sheet as a preliminary work of the (Continued on Page 2)

WETZEL RITES TO BE THURSDAY

Funeral services for Irvin Joseph Wetzal, 51, Emmitsburg R. 1, who died at his home Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock after an illness of 45 days, will be held Thursday morning, meeting at the Allison Funeral Home in Emmitsburg at 8:30 a.m. A requiem mass will be held in St. Joseph's Catholic Church there at 9 o'clock. The Rev. Fr. Joseph Caste will officiate. Interment will be made in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Mr. Wetzal was a lifelong resident of the Emmitsburg community and was a member of St. Joseph's Church. He was employed at the Funkhouser grit mill at Greenstone. Mr. Wetzal was a son of the late John and Mary Ferguson Wetzal.

Surviving are his widow, the former Ruth Manning, and seven daughters: Mrs. Stanley Andrews, Mrs. Earl Vaughn and Mrs. James Livezey, all of Emmitsburg; and Doris, Mary, Josephine and Patricia, all at home. There are five grandchildren; a brother and a sister, Norman Wetzal, Ottomana, and Mrs. Charles Miller, Emmitsburg.

Friends may call at the Allison Funeral Home in Emmitsburg Wednesday evening after 7 o'clock. Prayers will be said there at 8:15 p.m.

Parking Meter Taken, Returned

One parking meter and post owned by the borough of Gettysburg won't appear in the dean's office, or atop Glatfelter hall, or elsewhere at the college. Chief of Police Jack Bartlett said today. He expressed the appreciation of the borough police department to college officials and the president of a college fraternity for their cooperation in seeing that the meter made its way back into the hands of borough officials after having been taken by students allegedly planning a prank.

SHETTER BUYS MITCHELL'S RESTAURANT

Cloyd Shetter, 116 Chambersburg St., proprietor of the Shetter House, 48 Chambersburg St., and well-known area caterer, today announced that he has purchased the Mitchell building at the northwest corner of Lincoln Square and Carlisle St.

The purchase price was not revealed. Mr. Shetter said possession would be taken April 1. The purchase includes both the restaurant and the store room adjoining, now occupied by John H. Basehore, insurance broker and justice of the peace.

Mr. Shetter said he will continue the restaurant business. He opened the restaurant at this location for the late George Mitchell 31 years ago, on April 15, 1922, and continued to operate it for Mr. Mitchell for 11 years. Prior to that time he had been employed at the Philadelphia Quick Lunch in Harrisburg.

Major Changes Later
The Mitchell corner before the restaurant was opened had been the Letz clothing and shoe store for many years. Mr. Shetter was cook at the ATO Fraternity house on the college campus here after leaving Mitchell's Restaurant until 1945, when he bought and opened the Shetter House, restaurant and apartments.

The Mitchell property was purchased from Mr. Mitchell's widow. Her daughter, Mrs. Violet Hill, has been manager of the business.

Mr. Shetter said only minor changes will be made at present, major alterations and improvements being postponed until after the 1953 tourist season. He said he would continue to employ the present help at the restaurant if they desire to stay.

Chamber To Seek Data On Apple Blossom Festival Here

Suggestions that Adams County consider holding an annual Apple Blossom Festival were discussed by the directors of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce at the March meeting Monday night in the chamber's office in the Kadel Building.

Suggestions had been made by J. Herbert Walker, secretary of the state travel and tourist bureau of the Department of Commerce, that the county hold such a festival. Directors Monday night instructed Mrs. Helen Snyder, secretary, to obtain information from Winchester, Va., where a blossom festival is held each spring.

The secretary was also directed to write the Adams County Fruit Growers Association to learn whether this organization would be interested in participating in such a local festival.

N. A. Meligakes, president of the board of directors, presided. Directors present included Calvin A. Cluck, Edmund W. Thomas, Charles B. Bender, Arthur E. Hutchison, John Caldwell, William Musser and Glenn Guise. Also present was Ernest Dunaway, director of the new Credit Bureau of Adams County, who reported 46 members in the bureau. An organization meeting of the bureau will be held next Monday night, at the fire engine house. It was decided. All members and

Bill Calls For Addition To Cemetery Here

Congressman S. Walter Stauffer of the Adams-York-Cumberland district today introduced a bill in the House of Representatives. "To provide for the establishment of an addition to the Gettysburg National Cemetery on lands presently located within the Gettysburg National Military Park."

Stauffer's measure provides that the "Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to set aside a portion of the Gettysburg National Military Park, Pennsylvania, and to establish thereon an addition to the Gettysburg National Cemetery."

"The addition to the Gettysburg National Cemetery provided for by the first section of this Act shall be of such extent and area, and shall be located at such place within the present Gettysburg National Military Park, as the Secretary of the Interior deems suitable and appropriate. Such addition shall be reserved for the burial of veterans of World War I and World War II and of such other persons as may be entitled to interment in national cemeteries."

Mrs. Dorothy Lewellen Wolf, 45, Harrisburg Rd., Gettysburg R. 4, wife of Edgar E. "Jim" Wolf, advertising representative of The Gettysburg Times, died suddenly at 7:15 o'clock this morning in the Warner Hospital, where she was removed by ambulance Monday night from her home.

An employee of the past two years of the Bureau of Publications in the State Government in Harrisburg, Mrs. Wolf had been in her usual health Monday and was at work during the day. She was taken ill suddenly at 8:45 p.m. and was removed to the hospital. Blood transfusions given in an attempt to save her life were unavailing.

Had Taught School
Mrs. Wolf was a daughter of the late Olney and Daisy Poertner Lewellen of Columbus, Ind. She was born in Minneapolis, Minn., but had resided in Pennsylvania for the last 26 years. She also had resided in New York State, graduating from the Flushing, Long Island, High School. She was a graduate of Shippensburg State Teachers College in 1927 and taught school in Adams and Cumberland Counties for five years.

She was a member of Covenant Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg, and Gettysburg Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Wilma Cramer, St. Peter, Minn.; Mrs. Marion Bishop, Astoria, N. Y.; Mrs. Ruth Behmer, New York City, and Mrs. Esther Paulos, Harrisburg; her step-mother, Mrs. Frances Lewellen, Columbus, Ind., and 10 nephews and nieces.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

EPLEY SHOWS STUDEBAKERS' NEW DESIGNS

For the second time since World War II The Studebaker Corporation has unveiled a line of passenger cars that may set the pace in future design for the automobile industry.

The new models — Studebaker's 1953 Centennial line — are as exciting as were the style leaders which the company introduced in 1946 when it led the industry in producing a new post-war car, with their Continental sweep and contours they may well rank among the most distinctive cars ever built by an American manufacturer.

The new cars are on display at the C. W. Epley automobile showroom, Chambersburg St.

Designed by internationally famous Raymond Loewy, Studebaker's 1953 cars break as sharply with American contemporary design as did their predecessors immediately after the war. Although they reflect to some extent the influence of European styling, they retain the comfort, stamina and roadability so characteristic of Studebaker cars.

Complementing the styling changes are the availability of mechanical power steering for the Commander series, the first time this type of power steering has been adapted for passenger car use. Power steering for the Champion will be offered later in the year.

"New Style Trend"

Harold S. Vance, board chairman and president of Studebaker, says of the new line: "We believe we have again taken the lead in stimulating a new style trend. The advance is as definite as was that of 1946, if not more so. And again, in our opinion, the new styling is destined to play the pace-setting role for the reason that it fulfills the American automobile owner's ideas as to what the 'new look' in motor cars should be."

TOWN BALANCE IS $41,291.69, SAYS BASEHORE

The borough treasury had a balance of $41,291.69 in the general fund as of March 2. Borough Treasurer John H. Basehore reported to council at its March meeting at the fire engine house Monday night.

Receipts for February were $2,816.67 and disbursements $6,218.89. The receipts included meter collections of $1,500 and collections of the burgess's office $936.75.

The latter collections included the following: parking violations, $126; building permits, $105; digging permits, $104; guide license, $1; theater tax, $600.78.

Police Chief Reports

Chief of Police Jack Bartlett reported two criminal arrests in February for surety of the peace and disorderly conduct; 16 traffic arrests; six accidents investigated; 37 minor complaints received; escorts furnished for 11 funerals; two runaway boys from Brooklyn apprehended and returned; two Gettysburg juvenile girls turned over to the court; one missing boy found and returned to parents; one AWOL soldier apprehended and turned over to Army authorities and one stolen bicycle recovered.

During the month, according to the report, there was one safe burglary and one case of aggravated assault and battery, which are still under investigation.

Fire Chief Donald G. Jacobs reported there were nine fire calls during February, two Gettysburg and seven rural. Damage in the two fires in the borough was estimated at $50. Fire apparatus traveled 50 miles.

Fairfield

The Fairfield borough council will hold a special meeting Thursday night in the First National Bank building there to go over again the question of a sewer and water system for the borough, with Charles W. Wolf, borough solicitor, and William E. Sees, consulting engineer.

Kenneth Sionaker, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, was named borough secretary at a regular meeting of the council Monday night. He will fill the vacancy caused by the resignation recently of Howard Weikert.

Council authorized an additional street light on South St., on recommendation of the Street Lighting Committee. The question of replacing all the street lights in the borough was brought up and discussed, and the secretary was directed to ask the Metropolitan Edison Co. for information.

Chief of Police Wilbert Fleming was directed to have the 14 new traffic signs erected as soon as possible.

To Outline History Of First National

"The History of the First National Bank of Gettysburg" will be the subject of an address by Harris Venema, editor of The Pennsylvania Banker, at the March meeting of the Adams County Historical Society this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the court house. It was announced incorrectly Monday that the Gettysburg National Bank's history would be discussed.

Mr. Venema's history of the First National was patterned after the original history written by the late Daniel C. Jacobs, Arendtsville, one time bank director, whose ancestors were among the founders of the bank.

COUNCIL ASKED TO ANNEX PART OF COLT PARK

Owners of the new Colt Park development in the southwest part of Gettysburg petitioned the borough council, at its March meeting at the fire engine house Monday night, to have between 20 and 30 acres annexed by the borough.

The petition was presented to council by Atty. Daniel E. Teeter. It was referred to the Highway Committee of council. Mr. Teeter presented a blueprint map of the section, showing the part the owners desire to have taken into the borough.

A larger tract farther south, extending to the government lands on both south and west, was not included. Unofficially, several councilmen expressed the opinion that the entire tract should be annexed at one time to save expense, if any part of it is to be taken into the borough.

Samuel B. Miller, one of the signers of the petition, explained that homes are being built in the development and streets laid out. Land for streets cannot be deeded to the borough and the latter asked to ordain and improve them unless the property is within the borough limits, he explained.

Ask For Sidewalks

Councilman L. D. Shealer reported that residents of Gettys St. requested that sidewalks be laid on this street "so they can have their mail delivered." He said carriers will not deliver mail where there are no sidewalks. The secretary, Mrs. Anna Dracha, was directed to send notices to R. S. Noonan, York; Robert Fidler and Mary Ramer Eberhart, Gettysburg, giving them 90 days in which to lay sidewalks.

The secretary was also directed to notify Dr. J. C. Donley, Harrisburg St., to lay a new sidewalk and curb around his property. Councilman Mahlon P. Hartzell said that on Sunday an Cadet-Midshipman Donald Raffensperger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Raffensperger, Steinwehr Ave., has been assigned to the American President Steamship Company for the month of March.

His assignment is part of the program designed by the Department of Ship Management at the United States Merchant Marine Academy to give practical application of the principles taught in the department courses. This period of instruction is intended to bridge the gap between shore management and the ship's officers by increasing the understanding of shore problems on the part of the seafaring employees of the company, and at the same time, to permit the officer personnel to become acquainted with the men who will run the company's ships.

Upon graduation in March, 1954, Raffensperger will receive a Bachelor of Science degree, a license as Third Officer, and concurrent commissions as Ensign, United States Naval Reserve, and Ensign, United States Maritime Commission.

Littlestown GIVES SERMON SUNDAY NIGHT

The Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of Redeemer's Reformed Church, presented the sermon at the union vesper service on Sunday evening in Christ Reformed Church. The Rev. Mr. Reynolds also read the Scripture lesson and pronounced the benediction. The service was in charge of the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of the hostess church, who offered the invocation and prayer. The anthem "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung by the Christ Church choir accompanied by the organist, Miss Joyce E. Berwager, who presided at the console throughout the service.

The Rev. Mr. Koons will deliver the sermon at the vesper service next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Centenary Methodist Church. These services are arranged by the members of the Littlestown Ministerium. Mid-week Lenten devotions will be held in St. John's Lutheran Church on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. William C. Karns, will deliver the sermon. There will be Senior choir rehearsal following the service.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 will hold its first March meeting on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Eagles Home, West King St.

To Give Lenten Sermon

The Rev. Oscar E. Freeman, pastor of the Lutheran congregation of St. Luke's Union Church, near White Hall, will deliver the sermon at the Lenten service on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Patti Long, M. St., will be hostess to the Group "Missionary Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church" for the monthly meeting tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The union Lenten service of St. Mary's Lutheran Church and St. Mary's Reformed Church, Silver Run, will be held in the Lutheran Church on Wednesday at 7:45 p.m., in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Frederick R. Seibel. The sermon will be presented by the Rev. Ray E. P. Abbott, pastor of the Reformed Church. The catechetical class and choir of the Lutheran Church will meet following the service, at the church.

"Christ and Abraham" will be the subject of the sermon to be presented by the Rev. David S. Kammerer at the mid-week Lenten devotion on Wednesday evening, 7:30 p.m., in St. Paul's Church. The monthly meeting of the Council will follow the service at the church.

Plan Skating Party

Jean Blocher was pianist for group singing which opened the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Sunday evening. The C. E. pledge was repeated in unison and the Scripture was read by Evelyn Dickinson. William Benner was the leader for the discussion of the topics "No God Better—Through Trust" and "I Pledge Allegiance." Following another song by the group, prayer was offered by Robert B. DeGroot.

During the business session, in charge of the president, Mrs. Jean DeGroot, it was decided to purchase a film strip for use in the Sunday School. Preliminary plans were made to hold a skating party but no date was set. Reports were given by the secretary, William Benner and the treasurer, James Zulick. Next week, the topic for discussion will be "Know God Better—Through Worship" and James Zulick was selected leader. Two visitors were in attendance at the meeting, the Rev. Charles B. Rebert and Loraine Snyder.

Mid-week Lenten devotions will be held in St. Aloysius Catholic Church on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan, will hear confessions on Thursday from 3 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 7:30 p.m., in preparation for the first Friday of the month.

The members of the Senior choir of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will meet for rehearsal on Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Weekly rehearsal of the Littlestown Men's Chorus will be held Thursday evening at 9 o'clock in St. Paul's Church. Kenneth Kuhn, a student at the Carson Long Military Institute, New Bloomfield, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. White and family, North Queen St. The members of Girl Scout Troop No. 12 were taken on a conducted tour of the radio station WHVR, Hanover, on Thursday evening. The station guide explained the use of recordings and program arrangement. Each scout talked over the microphone and heard her recorded voice played back. Transportation to Hanover was provided by Miss Mary Rite Redding, troop leader, and William Staub. The members of the troop who enjoyed the trip were Nancy Rang, troop aide, Marie, Barbara and Vivian Beavenour, Patrick Weaver, Ellen and Barbara Beck, Maxine Reinhardt, Nancy Caster, Dianne Prock, Judy Ernst, Sally and Jessie Rang, and Donnie Simpson. This trip took the place of the weekly meeting.

Emmitsburg HS SENIORS ARE GUESTS AT ST. JOSEPH COLLEGE

Approximately 35 high school seniors arrived at St. Joseph College on Friday night which marked the opening of Freshman Guest Week. The guests had a glimpse of college life by living in the dorms and taking part in college activities. A buffet snack was served in St. Vincent Reception Room. At 7:45 p.m. they witnessed a movie and a social hour in the Green Room.

After mass and breakfast Saturday morning the guests took part in the usual Saturday morning activities. Following lunch they toured the campus. At 3 p.m. a one-act play was presented in DePaul Auditorium. Following the play a tea was served in the home management house. Sunday morning the guests were free to consult the administration and faculty members.

The Rev. Max Jordan, world-known journalist, broadcaster and newspaperman, today addressed the St. Joseph student body on "The Faith I Found."

In cooperation with St. Joseph's College, a skating party was held by Mount students Saturday night at the Rainbow Roller Skating Rink, Taneytown. This was the first of a joint series of social programs between the two colleges.

A review of the book, "The Caine Mutiny" was given in the Mt. St. Mary's College library on Wednesday by Donald Waters, dramatic coach on the St. Joseph College faculty.

The seminarians from the Mount St. Mary's Seminary spoke in all the religion classes last week, on the work of the missions in the United States and taken by the students.

A poll was taken by the Students' Library Committee to find ways to improve the facilities of the library to the students and to determine how many students made use of the microfilm edition of books.

The Knights of Columbus, Council No. 1965 of the college has announced a series of radio programs entitled "Safeguards of America" to be aired over Frederick station, beginning today.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McClellan and daughter of York visited with Mrs. McClellan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lings, and with their son, James, who is a student at Mt. St. Mary's College, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Tokar, Washington, visited over the weekend with Mrs. Tokar's mother, Mrs. Carrie Adelsberger.

Mrs. Alice McClellan and daughter, Mary of Bonneauville, visited on Sunday with Mrs. Edgar Humerick and with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keepers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Waynesboro, Pa., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Shorb on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sanders visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kuhn of Waynesboro on Saturday. Mrs. Kuhn is the former Lillian Peters.

Poached eggs on toasted English muffins make a fine Sunday breakfast. When you lift the eggs from the poaching water be sure to do so with a slotted pancake turner and then drain well by placing the turner and the egg on several thickness of paper toweling for a few seconds. This method assures a pleasant crisp muffin under the egg.

Senior Boy Scout Troop of Littlestown will take place n Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the local high school building. All boys who are 14 years or older, who are interested in joining the explorer scouts, are invited to attend.

Says Russia Wants To Conquer World

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Sen. James H. Duff (R-Pa.) said Sunday night the Korean truce talks are a fake and Stalin is duplicating, improving and expanding Hitler's tactics in an effort to "conquer the whole world."

Duff said Russia "means business and means to destroy us if she can." Consequently, the senator said the U. S. must not reduce its defenses but, instead, must build and maintain a strong military defense. Stalin knows "cannot be surprised or destroyed."

The Ladies' Mite Society of St. James Church will hold a food sale in the vacant store room of G. E. Spangler, York street, Saturday, March 7, at 10:30 A.M.

The College basketball team defeated the Franklin and Marshall team at College gymnasium Thursday evening by the score of 64 to 18.

Burgess Benner will have his office with Wm. P. Quimby, Esq. The Daughters of Liberty cleared $17 at their food sale Saturday afternoon.

Al. Harnish has started work on a new coach shop on Washington street. The old blacksmith shop, recently used by Mr. Moritz, has been moved to the rear of the lot.

George W. Reichle, who recently purchased from A. W. Crouse a half interest in the latter's butchering business, assumed his duties as a partner on Monday. The firm name will be Crouse and Reichle.

Has Taken Charge: Mr. and Mrs. Elias Fissel left on Saturday for Taneytown, where Mr. Fissel assumed charge of the new Central Hotel. The rest of the family left on Monday, accompanied by a number of friends.

Myers-Lawyer: The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Myers, near Biglerville, was the scene of a very pretty wedding February 25th, when their only daughter, Miss Dora Grace, was married to Mr. Charles H. Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Myers, of near Biglerville.

At 11 o'clock the bridal party was ushered into the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. Charles Houck. Rev. S. A. Diehl, of Bendersville performed the ceremony.

The bridesmaid was Miss Nora Raffensperger of Biglerville; Russell Myers, of Harrisburg, was the best man.

All partook of a sumptuous feast, which was beautifully served in the dining room.

Guest.

Young-Jones: David H. Yount, of Washington, D. C., formerly of this place, was married to Miss Catherine Jones, of Washington, on Wednesday, February 25.

Re-Extension of Charter: On Feb. 24th the charter of the First National Bank of Gettysburg expired for the second time in its history. The Board of Directors, believing a re-extension would meet with the approval of the Shareholders, asked the Comptroller of Currency at Washington for the necessary papers. These being duly received, were in a few days signed by over two-thirds of the Shareholders, who then gave their consent for the re-extension of the bank's corporate existence. The bank is progressing very nicely.

The bank's is officered by men who have grown up in the institution. Mr. Samuel Bushman, the third and present cashier, has just rounded out his forty years of faithful service.

The Board of Directors, wishing to relieve him of the clerical work connected with his duties as cashier, created for the first time in the history of the institution the office of Assistant Cashier and promoted to that place Mr. J. Elmer Musselman, who has been connected with the bank for the past nineteen years. The other officers are H. L. Snyder, the present bookkeeper, who came to the bank in the fall of 1897, and W. A. Bream the newly-elected Teller.

Announcement: Owing to the increased cost of living and the great disparity in wages between this and neighboring towns and cities, we, the undersigned, master painters of Gettysburg, have agreed on the following wages to take effect March 15th: 18 cts. per hour, or $1.80 per day of 10 hours; 15 cts. per hour or

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

TIMES I LIKE THE BEST

Times I like the best are those When a few old tried and true Friends who know you through and through

Gather round in working clothes Without fussing, sham or style Just to rest and play awhile.

Hearts at ease and minds content, No one over proud and great, No one dressed beyond his state.

Nor too set in argument That his temper he will lose If you differ from his views.

Just a few who come to play, Some to joke and some to sing Till the old walks fairly ring. How the minutes slip away When you're loving people so, Oh, how soon they have to go.

Give me six or eight old friends Now and then when day is done, Full of mirth and honest fun, And when that convention ends I'll declare with joy sublime That I've had a real time.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

PROCRASTINATION

The entire history of his world would be a different story if so many things weren't put off. Procrastination, both by people and nations. Indecision, and a lack of courage to act quickly have inspired many a termite horde to get busy, and many a blitzer to get in his deadly work while the unwary slept. Not only this, but think of the sorrow and disappointment, the heartbreaks, brought about by putting off what should have been done, and promptly, when the impulse or necessity demanded.

We do not live in an ideal world. There are too many of those who delight in taking potshots at the ideals that are held by so many who want this world to become as nearly ideal as possible. And we have insisted in leaving these snipers alone until we see their shots hitting all about us.

That old motto, "Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today," still holds good as one of the best. Clean up as you go, or don't go!

In my youth I worked for an interesting farmer in Michigan. I admired him greatly, for he was an exceptional citizen and friend. Over the years I corresponded much with him, but I always planned to visit him when near where he lived. I kept procrastinating. He lived a long and useful life — into the eighties — but one day I got a notice that he had gone from human companionship. How I regret putting off that visit that I could well have made!

How many there are who have had disagreements — in the family, in business, or just among friends — but have put off reconciliation until too late to do any good. Why? Is there any reason why hatred should be kept alive? It is a gnawing thing in the heart.

I often used to drop in at a famous old Mission in Chicago, and the noted leader, before his evening talk, would ask: "How long since you wrote to mother?" I am certain that thousands of mother hearts were warmed by that simple statement.

One thing that you can put off writing, however, is the bitter letter, the unkind word or criticism, or the decision to "get even with that guy!"

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Cement." Protected, 1953, George Matthew Adams Service

Reception to Seniors: Last Tuesday evening the Senior class of Gettysburg College were given a reception by President and Mrs. McKnight. The occasion was a most delightful one. Mr. and Mrs. McKnight were assisted in receiving by their daughter, Mrs. Black, of Reading, and Miss Emily Horner, of town.

Upon repairing to the dining hall each guest was presented with a fragrant white carnation. After a sumptuous repast the guests assembled in the parlor where music and toasts were rendered.

Personal: Those who left for the west on Thursday were Daniel P. Deardorff, wife and son, of Mountjoy township, for Franklin Grove, Ill.; Chas. Worley and Vincent Kuhn of Bonneauville, and Jesse Gardner, wife and two sons, of Gettysburg, for Dixon, Ill.; Annie Kime, of Gettysburg, William Huff and brother, of Granite Hill, for Franklin Grove, Ill.

NO U. N. ACTION ON KOREA SEEN POSSIBLE NOW

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—World diplomats today ruled out chances for any new action on Korea in the current U. N. session after hearing the uncompromising stands pronounced by both the Soviet Union and the United States.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky fired a broadside at the new Republican administration in the U. S. yesterday. He told the General Assembly's Political Committee once again that the only way to stop the fighting in Korea was to accept his own formula for peace—a formula already rejected by an overwhelming majority in the U. N.

Aside from Vishinsky's blasts at the Eisenhower administration, which he accused of merely "borrowing from the Truman-Acheson book," weary delegates found nothing new in the Russian's speech, for which they had waited tensely after suspending three consecutive meetings.

See Continuing Deadlock

This adamant stand — and the announcement earlier by Chief U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. that the U. N. Allies would not budge from their demands for an "honorable settlement" in Korea—indicated a continuing deadlock on the question during the rest of this seventh Assembly session.

No delegate has shown any intention of introducing any new proposal for ending the deadlock.

Vishinsky hinted he may reintroduce as a fresh resolution his old proposal—rejected during the first half of this Assembly session last fall—calling for an immediate cease-fire and an international conference on the question of prisoners of war, reunification of Korea and other Far Eastern problems.

No delegates asked to speak this morning, and Committee President Joao Carlos Muniz put off resumption of the debate until afternoon.

Pope Pius Observes His 77th Birthday

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII quietly observed Monday his 77th birthday and the 14th anniversary of his election to St. Peter's throne. The Vatican announced he has almost completely recovered from his recent illness.

Informants said the Pontiff's improved health would allow him to resume audiences, starting March 19. On that date, the feast day of St. Joseph, he will give an audience to a group of students.

There was no official observance of Monday's double anniversary.

George J. Kebill, who has been the traveling salesman for George E. Stock for about eighteen years, has resigned his position and will quit the road Saturday. Mr. Kebill will assume charge of the Globe Hotel on April 1st. Francis I. Smith will take his old position.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Weikert have gone to Waynesboro, where Mr. Weikert will carry on the butchering business.

Girl, 9, And Aunt Crushed To Death

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A nine-year old girl and her aunt were crushed to death Sunday night when the car in which they were riding struck an embankment and overturned, pinning them in the wreckage.

Killed were Marie Barbara Foley, 9, and her aunt, Mrs. Anna Goudge, 37.

Four other persons in the car, including the driver, William Goudge, 30, were injured. All were treated and discharged at Nazareth Hospital.

Legislature May Recess To Consider Chesterman Report

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's lawmakers concentrated Monday on cutting costs of state government as the General Assembly opened its third month.

And Republican leaders were prepared to talk over the possibility of calling a recess in order to hasten completion of consideration of the Chesterman Committee recommendations.

Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Republican floor leader, said he intended to "put the question (of a recess) up to both houses" because "it seems there would be a savings all around if we could arrange one until the hearings are completed."

He explained that if the session is recessed hearings can be conducted all week long while if the Assembly remains in session hearings can be held only two or three days a week.

Need Three Weeks

"It will take some three weeks of continuous daily work to go through the entire Chesterman reports but if we have to stop every Monday and Tuesday for regular sessions it may take twice that time," Mahany said.

"I don't see what we can do in the Legislature until the hearings are over. Once they are out of the way then we'll know where we stand on taxes and similar important matters."

The House was expected to act quickly to set up its half of a 30-man committee which will sit in on the public hearings over the 100 million dollar economy recommendations of the committee.

The Senate already has named its members to the legislative committee.

The hearings, now scheduled to begin next week, may last through March. They are receiving top priority over discussion of new taxes and other major administration measures.

New FEPC Bill

Meanwhile, a Fair Employment Practices Commission bill—second major administration bill to be introduced to date—was expected to make its long-delayed appearance.

Sen. T. Newell Wood (R-Luzerne) is expected to introduce the FEPC bill in the Senate. The house measure will have several Republican sponsors.

Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Republican floor leader, said the bill

Bonds, Jewelry Believed In River

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The muddy bottom of the Delaware River off a North Philadelphia pier was searched by two divers on Sunday in an unsuccessful hunt for some $75,000 worth of bonds and jewelry police said were tossed away by a group of youths.

The diving operations were directed by Capt. William Miller, head of the Telford, Montgomery County, diving unit.

Police said they were led to the spot by a 14-year-old boy, one of nine youths under arrest for robbing more than a score of homes in Philadelphia and in nearby Bucks and Montgomery Counties, over a four-month period.

Sgt. Adrian McCarr of the state police said jewelry and savings bonds valued at $30,000 has been recovered from the youths' homes and other hiding places.

Girl, 9, And Aunt Crushed To Death

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A nine-year old girl and her aunt were crushed to death Sunday night when the car in which they were riding struck an embankment and overturned, pinning them in the wreckage.

Killed were Marie Barbara Foley, 9, and her aunt, Mrs. Anna Goudge, 37.

Four other persons in the car, including the driver, William Goudge, 30, were injured. All were treated and discharged at Nazareth Hospital.

SENTRY SHOTS REDS WHO FAIL TO OBEY ORDER

RANGOON, Burma (AP)—A Burmese army sentry shot and severely wounded two members of the Russian Embassy staff Monday when they ignored his halt order at an army protected area.

The Russians were Constantin M. Anikine, 36, Embassy first secretary, and a Dr. Barbizo, 33, also a member of the Embassy staff.

Police authorities said they drove in an Embassy automobile into the military area on the eastern side of the capital well after midnight. The sentry ordered them to stop three times. Then he fired a burst from an automatic gun.

Red Guards Ward
Anikine was shot in the abdomen. Barbizo suffered multiple wounds on his face, neck and right arm and was reported in the more serious condition.

Both were rushed to a general hospital. A stocky Russian Embassy official stood guard in the corridor to their ward. He refused to let reporters speak to the injured men and declined to answer questions himself.

Burmese foreign office officials said no official word had been received yet from the Russians. The Burmese authorities were unable to give further details.

At the Russian Embassy, Second Secretary Nicolai Statskevich refused to answer all questions, turning back all inquiries with, "no comment."

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Winston Churchill said Monday he would be "quite ready" to join a get-together with President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Stalin.

But, he told the House of Commons, the talks would have to be on the "basis outlined by President Eisenhower."

64,993 DEER KILLED IN '52

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Game Commission reported Monday that 64,993 deer were killed during the 1952 season, 7,541 less than in the 1951 season.

The commission figures showed 27,164 bucks and 37,829 antlerless deer were bagged in 1952. The 1951 figures were 34,582 bucks and 37,952 antlerless deer, showing that most of the 1952 reduction was in the number of bucks bagged.

Groups of hunters protested to the game commission after the 1952 season, claiming the special doe season killed off the herd too quickly. Game commission officials have voiced support for a single deer season.

Thomas D. Frye, executive director of the commission, withheld comment on the deer kill figures until he has had an opportunity to study them.

Dickinson Here Wednesday As Bullets Conclude Home Season; Frosh Play At 7

Two Gettysburg College players, Bob Pizolato and Dale Kleinfelter, seniors, will be appearing before a home crowd for the last time Wednesday evening when the Bullet basketball team closes its home campaign by entertaining Dickinson on the college floor.

Pizolato, an all-state selection last year, has been one of the most consistent Bullet stars for three seasons. He has the college scoring record for one game with 37 points against Bucknell in the 1950-51 season.

Kleinfelter, ex-Middletown High School star, who developed rapidly after transferring here from Penn State was a starter during the opening games but more recently has been the No. 1 relief man.

Over-confidence may creep into the Bullet camp for the coming game. Gettysburg encountered little trouble in disposing of Dickinson 67-54 at Carlisle on February 15.

The Bullets have compiled an 11-9 record to date and are gunning for victories over Dickinson and in the season final next Monday with Franklin and Marshall on the York Junior College floor.

Red Devils Need Win
Dickinson has a young, inexperienced team and it has been finding the going tough this season. The

Catholic League Title Contest At GHS This Evening

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Harrisburg and York Catholic High dribblers will meet on the Gettysburg High School floor to decide the championship of the Central Pennsylvania Catholic Basketball League.

Harrisburg won the first half title while York captured the second half diadem.

Doors will open at 7 o'clock.

DOBY AND WYNN, DARK AND KINER ARE HOLDOUTS

By ED CORRIGAN
AP Sports Writer

Four of baseball's top stars still were among the missing in spring training today and the prospects of their signing in the immediate future appeared slim.

The Cleveland Indians are faced with the biggest problem. Both outfielder Larry Doby and pitcher Early Wynn have yet to come to terms, and they have been served with ultimatums by General Manager Hank Greenberg.

The New York Giants' captain, Alvin Dark, said at his Lake Charles, La., home that the front office was being "unfair," and that he intends to sit still.

And Ralph Kiner of the Pittsburgh Pirates and General Manager Branch Rickey apparently have reached an impasse in their battle of words that has covered thousands of miles from Havana to Palm Springs, Calif.

Greenberg's Warning
Greenberg apparently won't be troubled with second baseman Bobby Avila, who is listed among the holdouts, much longer. For one thing, he didn't include Bobby in his warning to Doby and Wynn, and for another, Avila announced in his Vera Cruz, Mexico, home that he would join the Indians later this week.

Greenberg had this to say via telegram to Doby and Wynn: "Your failure to report to camp today makes you an official holdout. Considering generous treatment you have had from Cleveland baseball club over the years, your refusal to accept terms leaves me no alternative but to withdraw my last offer. Unless I hear from you within 24 hours all contractual negotiations will commence with last year's salary figures."

Talks To Wynn Today
Wynn said he would talk to Greenberg, probably today, and Doby said he would request Greenberg's permission to join the Indians in Tucson, Ariz.

"It looks like Hank is threatening us to sign on his terms or else," Doby observed in his Paterson, N.J., home.

Dark said his dispute with the Giants doesn't have anything to do with talk of Manager Leo Durocher shifting him from shortstop to second base.

"The Giants don't want to pay me what I think I'm worth," he said. "But whoever got the idea I'm asking $40,000? The Giants have offered me one contract so far. That was back in December. It wasn't enough. I told them what I thought I was worth. Later, I offered to compromise. They haven't given in an inch and I don't think it's fair."

Awaiting Next Move
"There's no sense in my going to Phoenix and causing hard feelings. I haven't changed my mind about the whole thing."

"We haven't changed our attitude either," snapped Giant Vice President Charley Feeney.

Both Rickey and Kiner are waiting for the other to make a move in their dispute. Rickey had little to say in Havana, where the Pirates opened training yesterday, but in Palm Springs, Kiner said: "I believe it's up to him to contact me. I'm eager to get to spring training. The only thing holding me up is a contract and a salary."

Meanwhile, virtually all the clubs got down to serious training on the unofficial opening of the limbering up season.

Father Dies At Basketball Game

CLEVELAND (AP)—A city policeman died of a heart attack last night while watching his son lead Penn College in a basketball game against Detroit Tech.

Fenn was ahead 49-44 with one minute to go in the third period when 53-year-old Frank Kunc collapsed. His son, Fred, had thrown in 22 points during the tilt.

Asked by Fenn Coach Homer Woodling what should be done, the youth said he would like the game to be called off. It was ruled "no contest."

Adams County League Champions

Shown above are members of the Boiling Springs High School basketball squad who captured the regular season and playoff titles of the Adams County League this season. Coached by "Bud" Ecker, formerly of Littleton and an ex-Gettysburg College baseball star, the Bubblers were unbeaten in league competition with a 14-0 record. They have compiled a 21-2 season record, scoring 1,496 points to average just slightly more than 65 points while their opponents totaled 833 for a 36.2 average.

The Bubblers, as county champions, meet Greencastle, Franklin County titlists, in Class B District 3 playoff Wednesday evening at Shippensburg State Teachers College.

ST. LOUIS AND BRIGHAM YOUNG TO BE IN NIT

NEW YORK (AP)—St. Louis University entered the National Invitation Basketball Tournament to-day free of any strings and Brigham Young, another tentative acceptor, appeared virtually certain to show up.

A closing-seconds field goal by Bob Hendrick of Oklahoma A&M last night simultaneously put the Aggies into the NCAA playoffs and St. Louis into the NIT. The goal gave the Aggies a 51-50 victory over St. Louis and their seventh Missouri Valley championship in 10 years.

Until its defeat, St. Louis had a chance to share the title and conference rules call for a playoff which would have kept the Billikins out of NIT competition. The Bills accepted an NIT bid Saturday with the privilege of backing out if they became involved in a conference playoff.

To Decide More Entries
Meanwhile, Eddie Kimball, director of athletics at Brigham Young, said he hoped a possible Skyline Conference tie with Wyoming could be settled either by a flip of a coin or by a conference action. The champion is obligated to play in the NCAA Tournament. BYU, which holds a mathematical chance to tie with Wyoming, was invited to the NIT yesterday, completing the 12-team field.

Two more NCAA entries may be determined tonight from the Southwest and Border Conferences. Texas and Texas Christian, which are in a three-way tie for the lead with Rice, play each other while Rice meets Southern Methodist. The two games are the last on the conference schedule.

Hardin-Simmons meets Texas Tech tonight needing a victory to tie with Arizona for the Border crown. Arizona finished its schedule last night with a 65-51 decision over West Texas.

INDIANA NEW LEADER OF U. S. COURT TEAMS

NEW YORK (AP)—Indiana's smashing Big Ten championship, coupled with the end of Seton Hall's long winning streak, made the Hoosiers the top basketball team in the land today.

The convincing manner in which Indiana sewed up the Big Ten title by whaling Illinois, 91-79, persuaded the nation's sports writers and broadcasters that the Indiana boys should replace Seton Hall as No. 1 in the Associated Press poll after six straight weeks.

With the best winning skein of 17 now that Seton Hall and Washington have had their streaks snapped, Indiana received 25 first-place votes and a total of 639 points. Balloting was on the basis of 10 for first, 9 for second, etc.

Seton Hall Third
Seton Hall, beaten by Dayton Sunday night before the ballots were counted and again by Louisville last night after the polls closed, fell to third place, one behind La Salle. This represented a gain of two places for La Salle, the early-season poll leader. Washington fell two places to fourth.

Louisiana State advanced from sixth to fifth after winning the Southeastern Conference diadem. Oklahoma A&M, lowered one notch to seventh, went out after the balloting and clinched the Missouri Valley crown by edging St. Louis, 51-50, last night.

Kansas, which moved up to fifth, is leading in the Big Seven conference.

Kansas State, trailing Kansas by one game in the conference race, is two places behind in the poll at eighth, after swapping spots with Western Kentucky. Illinois once again is 10th.

80 ENTERED IN GOLDEN GLOVES

NEW YORK (AP)—Eighty of the classic amateur boxers on the Atlantic Seaboard start swinging tonight at Sunnyside Garden in the opening of the three-day Eastern Golden Gloves Championships.

Ten teams of eight have been entered in the tourney, including the host squad of the New York Daily News. Other teams have been sent here from Lowell, Mass. (New England); Buffalo, N. Y., Newark, N. J., Pittsburgh, Washington, Huntington, W. Va., Jacksonville, Fla., and Charlotte, N. C. The latter will be represented by two teams, one a civilian unit, and the other a squad of Carolinas service champions.

Tomorrow night the boxers will switch to Brooklyn's Ridgewood Grove where the field will be cut down to 24. The semifinals and finals will be staged at Madison Square Garden Thursday night. The eight winners and 18 others will be chosen to the team which will meet the Western champs in Chicago, March 26.

N. O. LOSES TO SCOTLAND 5 IN CLASS C GAME

A tall, well-balanced Scotland basketball team was forced to come from behind to defeat a scrappy New Oxford high squad 44-37 in a Class C District 3 PIAA playoff game Monday evening on the Gettysburg College floor. A comparatively slim crowd of about 350 fans witnessed the game.

Russ Sohnleitner's underdog New Oxford outfit threw a scare into the Cadets when they took a 10-7 lead in the first period and hiked their margin to 23-18 at half time. Kenny Ecker, who wound up with 15 points, spear-headed the New Oxford assault.

Scotland's class began to tell in the third period as they finally caught up and moved ahead 33-30 going into the final quarter.

The Cadets maintained their lead throughout the final stanza.

Finish With 9-14 Mark
New Oxford, who qualified to enter the Class C tournament by finishing in a tie with Biglerville for second place in the county league, finished its 23-game schedule with a 9-14 record.

In other Class C games Monday Tower City downed Highspire 64-54 and Robesonia ripped Mt. Joy 62-54. Mt. Joy, coached by George Houck, formerly of Biglerville, held a 19-point lead early in the third period but collapsed completely in the final period.

Semi-final games will be played Thursday evening with Scotland opposing Fleetwood, and Tower City meeting Robesonia. The sites of the floors have not yet been decided.

175 Covered Wooden Bridges Remain On Pa. State Highways

HARRISBURG — The relentless march of progress has reduced the number of covered wooden bridges in Pennsylvania but 175 of these famous old structures remain on the State Highway System, E. L. Schmidt, secretary of highways, announced today.

At least five of these are known to be more than a century old. Probably more have attained that ripe old age but as the records are incomplete the building dates are not known.

Adams County has two of the ancient structures, definitely known to be a century old. The bridge across Conewago Creek in Butler Twp. on Leg. Rt. 01018 has been serving traffic since 1836. It is 98 feet long and continues to carry three-ton loads. Next is the South Conewago Creek bridge, with a 54-foot span between Conewago and Mt. Pleasant Twp., built in 1850. It may have been rattle after 100 years of service but continues to carry ten-ton loads.

Two In Chester County
Chester County also has two covered wooden bridges well over the century mark. One is the oldest in the Commonwealth according to State Highway records. It was built in 1807 across the West Brandywine Creek between Pocopson and West Bradford Twp. It contains a 96-foot span and is safe for loads up to five tons. It is popularly known as the Northbrook bridge on Leg. Rt. 15077.

The other old timer in Chester County is Hall's bridge, built in 1850 across French Creek in West Vincent Twp. It is on Leg. Rt. 15194 and is 100 feet, one inch in length. It is posted for three ton loads.

The Hokenaqua Creek bridge on Leg. Rt. 48061 in Allen Twp. of Northampton County is the fifth member of the exclusive century club. It is 96 feet in length and has a capacity of four tons. It was built in 1840.

Another Old One
In Indiana County a 79-foot span across Little Mahoning Creek continues to carry 15-ton weights after 71 years of service. Two bridges across Sherman's Creek in Perry County will also carry 15-ton loads. None of the others are as sturdy, although ten-ton loads may cross the 134-foot span on the Yellow Breeches Creek between York and Cumberland Counties and the Conodoguinet Creek bridge in North Middletown Twp., Cumberland County.

There are a few which will safely carry eight and seven-ton loads but then there is a sharp slump to five-ton capacity and less for the remaining covered bridges. The majority are able to handle two-ton loads but many are limited to only one ton.

Greene County leads in the number of remaining state-maintained covered bridges with 23 across its many streams. Bedford is next with 22 and Columbia has 19. Washington has 16; Lancaster, 15 and Adams 13.

Some Preserved
Others are: Perry, nine; Chester, eight; Cumberland, seven; Juniata, six; Bucks and Somerset, five each; Dauphin and York, four each; Indiana, Lehigh, Sullivan and Erie Berks and Snyder have three each; have dwindled to two each.

Senate Okays Funds For Federal Agencies

WASHINGTON (U) — The Senate yesterday okayed $947,325,579 in funds for a score of federal agencies—$22,152,659 more than voted by the House.

The supplemental appropriations measure was hiked by a number of minor amendments, such as $980 for an automobile for Vice President Nixon and a $175,000 increase in the emergency fund for the President. The bill is for expenses in the year ending June 30.

The total is still $1,380,195,538 below the amount sought by ex-President Truman before he left office Jan. 20. Bulk of the cut was a House-imposed slash of $1,200,000,000 in funds for the military—a cut termed "phony" by some congressmen who said the money would have to be voted later, if not now.

The measure now goes to Senate-House conference to straighten out differences between the Snt and House versions.

Denies New Trial; Fix Sentence Date

COUDERSPORT, Pa. (U)—Alfred L. Sallade, 32, will be called into Potter County Court on March 7 for sentence on a conviction of voluntary manslaughter in the death of Charles P. Van Pelt, 19, member of a socially prominent Philadelphia family.

Judge Walter P. Wells denied a defense motion for a new trial on Saturday and fixed the date for Sallade's sentence. He faces a possible maximum sentence of 12 years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

Sallade, operator of an airport at nearby Cherry Springs Lake, was charged with the fatal shooting of Van Pelt and wounding of Erwin Bergdoll, 19, when the two youths, on a camping trip, approached the airport last Sept. 1. Bergdoll recovered.

Sallade testified at his trial he thought the youths were intent upon burglarizing the airport. He said the place had been robbed several times previously.

Sen. James S. Berger, Sallade's counsel, said a decision as to appealing the conviction will be made before sentence is imposed.

Only one bridge remains in each of the following counties: Lycoming, Lawrence, Clinton, Northampton, Northumberland and Union.

In other counties of Pennsylvania they have faded from the scene officially although the Pennsylvania Department of Highways has aided historical societies or other interested groups to preserve them for future generations, where the road has been re-located and new bridges constructed.

American-built automobile. They are a mere 56-5/16" high—less than five feet. Their overall length is 201-15/16". Height of Champion and Commander sedans is 60 1/2". Overall length of Champion and Commander sedans in 198-9/16", and that of the Land Cruiser, 202-9/16". Rear tread width on all models has been increased from 54" to 55 1/2". Front tread width remains at 56 1/2".

In both exterior styling and interior design the new cars are different, including the "cleanliness" of the styling; the use of basic horizontal lines to achieve new contours; the concave design motif along the sides which flows back from the forward tip of the front fenders and culminates in a back angle "rake"; the low, sweeping lines of hoods and trunk lids; the fin-type rear fenders; the unusually low silhouette of the entire car, particularly of the hardtop convertibles and coupes.

Eliminate Wind Noise
Wind noise has been practically eliminated by the overall design of the cars and the new styling of window vents.

Glaze area, with improved visibility in all directions, has been greatly increased on all models, ranging from a boost of 133 square inches on hardtop convertibles to an increase of 819 square inches on the Land Cruiser. The total glaze area of a 4-door sedan, for example, is 33 per cent greater than on the corresponding 1952 model.

Among the interior features are recessed floors and center arm rests for rear seat occupants of hardtop and coupe models, beveled instrument panels which provide more knee room, new instrument dials and toggle switches.

SCHOOL DELAYS

will be delayed as little as possible. The board talked over briefly also the question of one or two sites for a new elementary school building or buildings here. With one site already in the jointure's possession through condemnation proceedings and another to become available if an enabling bill passes Congress, the joint district directors are faced with the necessity of deciding whether to build one or two buildings now. Originally two buildings had been decided upon but at that time one was to be on the south and the other on the north side of town. Efforts of the Planning Committee to find a northside site have been in vain so far.

Dr. Keefeauver said final approval on minor changes in the auditorium-classroom addition to the high school building is being awaited from Harrisburg before specifications can be prepared for bidders.

Executive Group To Meet
Another possible delay in elementary school plans may come if the board decides to change the site and size of the grade school structure.

The board discussed briefly future plans for the lodge south of the high school building and a reported need for repairs to the fence along the west side of the High Street School property but no action was taken on either.

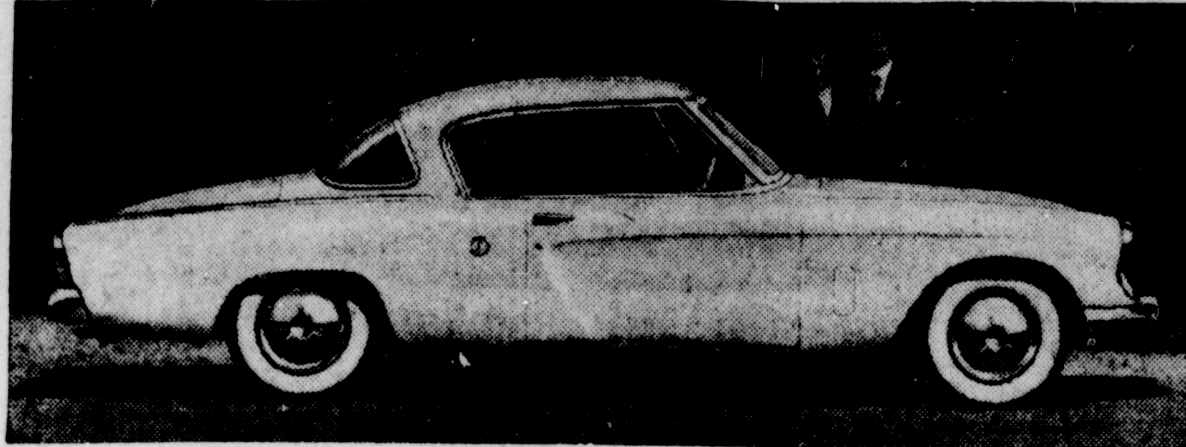

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Joint District was announced for next Monday evening but Dr. Keefeauver said he knew of little of importance yet on the agenda for that session.

Mrs. Erma D. Poppay, president of the local board, presided at the meeting with Directors R. D. Wickerham, Ray J. Kitzmiller, Daniel J. Wolf, Jacob Appier, Robert Deardorff and Richard Dreas and Dr. Keefeauver in attendance. The only motion proposed at the meeting was that for adjournment about 9:30 p.m.

Setting a new trend of European styling in American production automobiles, the 1953 Studebaker Champion hardtop reflects the Continental influence by its low silhouette and graceful contours. The car is only 56 5/16 inches high, and has an overall length of 201 15/16 inches. Power steering, now available at extra cost in the Commander series, will be offered in the popular Champion line later in the year. The new cars are being shown at C. W. Epley's Garage, Chambersburg, St.

COUNCIL ASKED

from $250 to $275 a month. The raises are effective as of March 1.

In an effort to help the Municipal Authority determine the reason for the large increase of water at the sewage plant every time it rains here, Borough Engineer Winebrenner was directed to supply John Long, superintendent, with blueprints of the storm sewer system.

No Maps Available
Councilman John Millard, reporting on a recent meeting of the Sewer Committee with the Authority, said the new disposal plant was designed to handle 2,000,000 gallons daily, and under normal conditions was handling 600,000 gallons.

"When we get a rain, even an ordinary one, this amount builds up quickly to as much as 2,600,000 gallons," Councilman Millard said. "This is more than the capacity of the plant, and raw sewage is bypassed. This the State Board of Health does not like."

Millard said that limestone, tar and other matter had been found in the settling basins at the disposal plant, indicating that the extra water came from storm sewers draining surface water. He asked that maps be turned over to the Authority.

Mr. Winebrenner said blueprints would have to be made, since, he claimed, no maps of the storm sewer system were ever made. Mr. Winebrenner said some of the surface water came from cellars and drain pipes in garages, which are connected with the sanitary sewer system.

"Every cellar hole in the borough is hooked up to the sanitary system," he said. "Some of the water is coming from garages, where tar and stone washes in." It was also contended that a number of rain spouts on houses still drain into sanitary sewers, in spite of an ordinance against it and a campaign several years ago to stop it.

Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Bullett, who is also attorney for the authority, said the latter's consulting engineer had reported that the main part of the excess water came from storm sewers, but from which ones and where, only a survey would determine. Mr. Winebrenner said he knew of none draining into the sanitary system.

Council, on recommendation of the Safety Committee, authorized the purchase of three replacement units for the parking meters on Lincoln Square. They will be used when meters are taken out for repairs, so there will be no loss in revenue. "While the meters are jammed, we are not getting any revenue," Councilman Millard said. He said even chewing gum was used to jam meters.

Buy More Meter Bags
At the suggestion of Burgess William G. Weaver, council authorized also the purchase of 35 new meter bags, to cover meters when "no parking" is in force. These will be used on meters in the square. Burgess Weaver said the new meters have nothing on which to hang the no parking signs.

The contract for re-painting street and speed limit signs was awarded to the Cullison Body Shop, S. Washington St., at a low bid of $1.50 each for speed limit signs and 75 cents each for street signs. There were two other bidders, Eugene S. Sickles and O. G. MacPherson.

Council referred to its president, H. M. Oyler, and Burgess Weaver, the question of closing N. Stratton St., while rails are being removed by the Western Maryland Railway Co. Engineer Winebrenner said there was a regulation that only half the street could be closed at one time. The railroad, he said, had insisted on closing the entire width. Borough barricades were used.

Advertise For Materials
The advertising for bids on tar and stone for the highway department and for bids for a new tractor, was authorized Monday night. A large quantity of tar is being used, and will be used, Mr. Winebrenner reported, in repairing holes in the streets made by the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. The cost is borne in the digging permits assessed against the gas company.

Borough Tax Collector J. Herbert Weikert was exonerated by council for $336.49 in unpaid occupation taxes for 1952. Two tax liens on real estate have been turned over to the borough solicitor, it was reported. The unpaid occupation taxes are due to deaths, duplications or removal from the borough, it was said.

Councilman George D. March presided at the meeting as acting president in the absence of Council President H. M. Oyler. Three members of the Woman's Civic Council, Mrs. Forrest Craver, president; Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, past president, and Mrs. Elizabeth S. Hennig, secretary, attended the session.

LIONS VOTE $125

served and will cost $1.25 each. The charts for reserved seats will open at the Shetter House on April 11.

President John S. Rice presided at the meeting with about 100 Lions and guests in attendance and presented monarch pins to these veteran members, 25-year pins to Dr. L. C. Keefeauver, G. W. Lefever and Dr. R. D. Wickerham; 20-year, Henry T. Bream; 10-year, J. Herbert Weikert, C. A. Cluck, Robert Smith and Arthur M. Gordon.

+ Answer The Call... + Give Generously TO YOUR RED CROSS

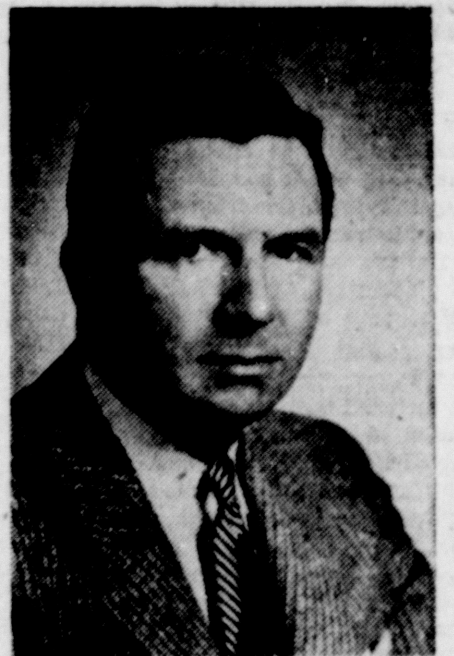

A Message From the General Fund Chairman

If you have given through the Red Cross, you are being thanked somewhere every hour of the day by people unknown to you—the people who have been helped by the Red Cross serving in your name.

To many of them you have given the 'gift of life' by providing blood and blood products. Blood collected through the Red Cross has saved lives on the battle-scarred hills of Korea and in our veterans' hospitals here at home. This year, blood will serve a new cause. Gamma Globulin has been found to be effective toward the prevention of paralysis which oftens accompanies polio. The Office of Defense Mobilization has requested the Red Cross to accept the responsibility of collecting the additional blood required on behalf of our boys and girls for this summer's fight against this disease. The polio program alone has raised the Red Cross budget by $7,000,000.

In time of disaster, to many of these unknown neighbors you have given friendly help. You have helped to restore their homes and livelihood when no other resources except yours, given through Red Cross, were available.

You have extended your friendly hands to your neighbors' sons and daughters serving in the armed forces. You have helped provide counsel and financial assistance to them in time of emergency. You have sent your ambassadors of good will, Red Cross Volunteers, to military and veterans' hospitals to lighten the burdens of pain and monotony for the sick and injured.

CHARLES W. WOLF
General Chairman
RED CROSS FUND

Across America you have helped people to help themselves and to help others by providing training in first aid, water safety, home nursing, and in the more expert skills learned by volunteer Nurses' Aides.

Yes, somewhere every day people are thanking you for what you have done. I thank you for your gift through the Adams County Chapter Red Cross.

FOUR CHARGED WITH MURDER

BUTLER, Pa.—A Pittsburgh auto mechanic and three other men are charged with murder today in the strangulation death of Mrs. Alice Marie Storch, 49-year-old Butler County housewife.

Dist. Atty. Clark H. Painter said all four admitted playing parts in a plot to kill Mrs. Storch. Painter said he will ask death in the electric chair for all four.

Painter declared "there is another woman in the case" but declined to reveal her name. He said the husband, Ernest Storch, 50, a mechanic for Gulf Oil Corp. in Pittsburgh, has admitted seeing the other woman.

The district attorney said Storch promised to pay three Pittsburgh negroes $10,000 for slaying Mrs. Storch and made them a down payment of $2,500.

Painter identified the three men, all under arrest, as Richard Haines, 28; Walter Henderson, 25; and Russell Budd, 28.

Asked for the motive behind the murder plot, Painter said:

"Storch desired to be rid of his wife."

Kenny Rollins of the Boston Celtics in the NBA and former captain at the University of Kentucky played with the U.S. Olympic team in 1948.
